THE GOLDEN NUGGET
Lake Charles, La

PERFECTING YOUR SUPER POWERS: EMPOWERING EDUCATION FOR ALL

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

LAFEPA members, exhibitors, and colleagues, it is indeed my pleasure to welcome you to the 2025 Spring LAFEPA Conference, “Perfecting Your Super Powers: Empowering Education for All.” I once again look forward to seeing all of you as we continue to grow professionally and strengthen our network system at the Golden Nugget in Lake Charles.

Your Executive and Planning committees, in collaboration with the Louisiana Department of Education, have created an agenda that promises to be informative while ensuring relevance to the work that you do. It is critical to the success of our work that we remain compliant with all statutory requirements that govern federal funds (Title I, II, III, IV, IDEA, Pre-K, Carl Perkins, etc.) while we align resources to LDOE priorities and goals and the needs of our school systems.

This conference will surely perfect your superpowers as we support you in further unlocking the tremendous potential that you possess and by working together, we will impact the education of all. It has truly been an honor to serve you!

Yours in education,

Scott Champagne

Breakout Session Descriptions

A Snapshot of the Transition to Web-Based Monitoring

Chanotta Oliver and Angela Miles, LDOE

This session will introduce the Department's new concept of web-based monitoring. Participants will learn how school systems can navigate the web-based system and review examples of system capabilities. From notifications to results, the new web-based monitoring will serve as the LDOE's official portal for more consistent management of federal program monitoring and paperwork reduction for school systems.

8:30 A.M.-9:30 A.M.

Grand Ballroom

Attendance

Dr. Ernise Singleton, LDOE

This session will provide an overview of attendance data and strategies to improve attendance.

9:30 A.M.- 10:15 A.M.

Grand Ballroom

Working Effectively in Federal Programs Important Tricks of the Trade

LEA Representatives/LAFEPA Executive Committee

Willowick I and II

3:30 A.M.- 5:00 P.M.

Willowick I and II

Preparation and Implementation: Cracking the Code to a Successful Monitoring Experience

Angela Randall, LDOE

This session will provide participants with relevant and practical planning strategies as school systems gear up for federal program desk audits or onsite monitoring. "New" federal program directors may find this session helpful as they navigate organizing and planning for upcoming monitoring activities.

10:45 A.M.- 12:15 P.M.

Post Oak I and II

2:00 P.M.- 3:30 P.M.

Memorial I and II

Federal Support and Effective EL Strategies

Melanie Mayeux and Dr. Alexandra Chenevert, LDOE

This session will provide an overview of how federal funds can support English Learner (EL) programs, including funding and compliance considerations. The session will also explore effective instructional strategies to support ELs in language development and academic achievement. Participants will gain practical tools and best practices to enhance EL instruction and program implementation, ensuring opportunities for ELs to succeed.

AE Touch Technologies – GOLD SPONSOR

AE Touch Technologies, Inc., established in 1977 by Adam Crappel, Jr., started as a printer/fax machine/calculator provider in his small hometown of Morgan City, Louisiana. After years of successful business, he expanded into other diverse technologies like interactive flat panels, temperature sensing kiosks, webcams, air purifiers, disinfecting robots, and more. The 4k anti-reflection interactive panel provides 20 touch points along with palm rejection technology. Navigation can be done using the included pen or simply with the touch of your finger. Adam now services customers in eighteen (18) states and Puerto Rico. AE Touch Technologies, Inc., a minority-owned business, continues to focus and exceed on reliable products and unrivaled customer support. AE Touch Technologies, Inc. offers several sizes of Interactive boards (43", 49", 65", 75", 86", 100", 110"). The built-in Android operating system provides you with all the apps you need. Our interactive software allows you to import and use existing lessons, annotate over any application, and teach with subject-specific tools. We offer an optional PC module to transform your interactive board into an interactive PC experience, allowing you to visit any website to interact with resources, materials, files, and videos. Another option, our AE App Box, has touch-based learning games focused on reading, spelling, math, phonics, and more. Your mounting options include wall mount, motorized wall mount, rolling stand, and/or motorized stands. We also offer various cameras for your boards. As always, AE Touch Technologies does not charge for delivery, installation, and training for your new purchases. All of our interactive flat panel displays come with an on-site 5-year parts warranty and a 3-year labor warranty, which begins on the day of installation. In recent years, LCD Video Walls have been added to the product line, which is perfect for meetings, educational facilities, retail spaces, and more. The LCD panels produce stunning, high-contrast, colorful images. In addition, AE Touch Technologies offers various safety solutions including a Temperature Kiosk that is a contactless scanner that will detect any temperature abnormalities within seconds, a 30-person thermal checkpoint, and air sterilizers to protect against airborne viruses. We also have a BRAND-NEW brand – CRAWBABIES – which offers flushable baby wipes, biodegradable baby wipes, and biodegradable bath wipes. Our primary focus is to “keep those tails fresh & clean!” while providing wipes for your every need!
